

Speakers Nethics/NRIN event 'Research ethics across scientific disciplines' 14 March 2024, Utrecht

Speaker	Biography
Joke Baas	Joke Baas is the chair of Nethics. Her background is in experimental psychology and neuroscience and she currently holds a chair in psychology at Utrecht University. She has experience with ethics review in medical and social sciences and is member of EUREC.
Jolanda Habraken	Jolanda Habraken is the secretary of Nethics. She has a background in research in the biomedical and social sciences domains. She currently works as a policy advisor for Research Integrity at the Eindhoven University of Technology.
Mariette van den Hoven	Mariëtte van den Hoven is a Professor of Medical Philosophy and Ethics at the Amsterdam University Medical Center and Head of the Ethics, Law, and Humanities Department. She leads a consortium on scientific integrity, particularly aimed at developing training on integrity. She has also set up a PhD program within Utrecht University for the entire university and works on various topics regarding scientific integrity. As a side job, she is also active at the Center for Organizational Integrity (COI).
Daniël Lakens	Daniel Lakens, is an Associate Professor of Metascience and chair of the Ethical Review Board at the Human-Technology Interaction group at Eindhoven University of Technology.
René Bekkers	René Bekkers is a Professor of Philanthropy at the Department of Sociology at VU Amsterdam. At the VU Faculty of Social Sciences, he chaired the Ethics committee since its establishment and conducted research on data and methods transparency. Blog: https://renebekkers.wordpress.com/
Jacqueline Schenk	Dr Jacqueline J. Schenk is a developmental psychologist, holding a PhD in Developmental Psychology and Behaviour Analysis. In her position as an Associate Professor in Developmental Psychology and Orthopedagogical Sciences at ESSB at EUR, she teaches courses in Developmental and in Clinical Child and Youth Psychology and does research involving people with intellectual disabilities, autism and Down syndrome with the aim to improve conditions for inclusion. In addition, she is a member of the CBE, the Board of Appeals for Examinations, and Chair of the Research Ethics Committee at ESSB (Psychology and Pedagogical Sciences).
Freddy van der Veen	Freddy van der Veen, is an Associate Professor in Clinical Psychology at the Erasmus University Rotterdam. Freddy is also a Member of the Ethical Committee of the Department of Psychology Education and Child Studies. He is a Former Member of the Medical Ethical Committee Erasmus MC.
Marcel Verweij	Marcel Verweij is a Professor of Ethics at Utrecht University. His work focuses on ethics in public health, notably in relation to vaccination programs, infectious disease control, and policies for health equity and health care rationing. He has been member of research ethics committees for several organizations, including TNO, Unilever, and Wageningen University, and covering biomedical, social sciences and food sciences.
Jaap Bos	Jaap Bos is Associate Professor at Utrecht University at the Faculty of Social Sciences, Department of Interdisciplinary Social Science. He is a member of the IRB and author of Research Ethics for Students in the Social Sciences (Springer, 2020).